

Dss. Mary Williams, MDiv

One sentence that describes me and my writing:

Never been published club member. Love to write both fiction and non-fiction. Christian fiction and commentaries on the Scriptures. Bible study class notes and handouts.

Brief bio:

Wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, and friend.

A computer-aided drafter in mapping and construction technology.

Deaconess in the Church of the Incarnation, Bryan/College Station, Texas, Episcopal Diocese of Fort Worth, Texas (ACNA). Bachelor of Science in Religion, Master of Divinity in pastoral ministries. Master's level certifications: Pastoral Counseling and Anglican Ministries.

Why I write:

Writing is part of my calling to teach and share the Gospel. I love the deep exploratory research into Scriptures using theology and the Hebrew and Greek languages. Including worship and prayer, writing and research are my happy places.

I write:

Fiction: ___ short stories ___X_ books Genres: parallel Scriptures

Nonfiction: ___ articles; _X_ personal experience stories; ___devotions; X_ books; Genres: Scripture studies

My audience X_Christians ___X_ general public ___X_ women X_men ___X_ teens ___children

I'm currently working on:

Becoming a Deaconess (working title), seeking a calling with the study of Scriptures. What is a deaconess today?

My greatest joy and/or struggle in writing is:

There is joy in the process of writing. Fear in the 'what's next.'

I'd like to meet writers who:

___ I belong to a writers' group that is open to new members.

X_ I would like to find a writers' group.
