

Name: Greene, Linda

One sentence that describes me and my writing:

Brief bio: I share inspiring stories of God making the ordinary extraordinary.

Why I write: I write in obedience to encourage others and draw them nearer to Jesus Christ.

I write:

Fiction: ___short stories ___books Genres:

Nonfiction: ☒articles ☒personal experience stories ☒devotions ☒books Genres:

Other: ___poetry ___scripts ☒songs

My audience ☒Christians ☒general public ___women ___men ___teens ___children

I'm currently working on: a narrative nonfiction and an article to submit to Chicken Soup for the Soul

My greatest joy and/or struggle in writing is: My greatest joy is hearing the reaction of someone who has become more excited or inspired after reading my work. My greatest struggle is balancing real life responsibilities with the need to carve out time to write.

I'd like to meet writers who:

___I belong to a writers' group that is open to new members.

___I would like to find a writers' group.

Email: lsgreene700@gmail.com Website: currently being developed Blog: upcoming

City & State (or Country): West Greenwich, RI

___I'm not yet published ___I've been published in periodicals ___X_I have published one or more books (a chapter in a Guideposts book:

Title: "No Time for Slumber" in God's Constant Presence Volume 8: Lifted by His Word, True Stories of Everyday Miracles

Date and publisher: April 29, 2025, Guideposts

"Sometimes God speaks to us through the Bible, drawing our attention to particular passages that relate directly to our needs. But other times His Word comes to us in different ways.

In this volume you'll read the stories of people who found a verse at just the right time or received a message through a chance encounter. Sometimes it was a quiet nudge from God, spoken directly to a person's heart, and sometimes He used other people to guide our writers in the right direction. In the end, we find, God speaks to us not only through His Word but through all of creation.

Let these stories of God speaking to others inspire you to open your heart to His messages in your own life."

256 pages, $19.95, Guideposts, Amazon