

Name: Julie Sunne

One sentence that describes me and my writing: I write about finding real hope amid life's real struggles.

Brief bio: Julie Sunne writes about finding real hope amid life's real struggles. Her own struggles include enduring multiple miscarriages and now caregiving for her adult daughter who has intellectual disabilities. Julie is the author of three books, with pieces in anthologies and online and print magazines/sites. Julie and her husband, David, are also parents to three grown sons and grandparents to two adorable blessings with another on the way. They reside with their daughter in northeast Iowa. Do you long to praise God despite your disappointments? Do heavy life circumstances make you wonder where God is in all of this?

Thankful: A 90-Day Devotional and Gratitude Journal by Julie Sunne combines a Christian devotional and prayer journal. It is beautifully designed with reflections on the themes of praise, gratitude, and generosity. Written from the author's personal experiences with miscarriage, grief, illness, and raising children with disabilities, this inspirational devotional reminds readers that true thankfulness comes from a heart transformed by God—not perfect circumstances.
