

Name: Dale Witkowski

One sentence that describes me and my writing: I am a story teller and student of the Bible who loves all things creative.

Brief bio: Dale is a retired art teacher, lay pastor, and artist. She has published fourteen devotionals for Light from the Word, written articles for her church's monthly Messenger, and had an article published in one of the Abba's Heart anthologies from Cross River Media Group. One of Dale's poems was published in 2024 in Plenty of Room at His Hem by Jill Marie Thomas.

Why I write: I write to share the hope and personal value found in a relationship with Jesus Christ through every trial and every joy in life.
